& name at our house
during your stay —

With earnest expectation of a favorable reply — for the Cause's sake.

I remain gratefully

tion of Anti-Slavery
- I think if you knew the need. I could see the benefit of such enlightenment in this place and this time you wd.
if at all possible desire to come - I hope we shall hear from you
to this effect in a day or two & I write to say my hope that you will come here

My dear Friend Jarrison - if an acquaintance of six years standing & a love commensurate on my side will admit of so familiar an address - I hope you will be able to accede to the wishes of your Manchester friends in "coming over" to help them in enlightening the darkness of this place on the World wide ques.
